

I Will Praise You

(Rob Loomis)

Oh Lord You have searched me
And You know me
You know when I sit
You know when I rise

You discern my going out
You discern my lying down
You are familiar with all of my ways

I will praise You O Lord with all my heart
I will bow down before
Your Holy Throne

I will praise Your Name
I will praise Your Name
